

Adventure Learning Theory of Change

Why we exist

To unlock the potential in young people through learning & adventure in the wild

All have the belief that we all have undiscovered potential

How we support

Mountain adventure challenges

River adventure challenges

Re-integration follow up program

Taking individuals out of their comfort zone

Previous participants becoming leaders

Encouraging peer to peer support

Our USPs

Who we support:

Children with behavioural issues, with:

- Disruptive family life

Parent, with:

- Not able to connect with their children

Schools, with:

- Unable to reintegrate children

Outcome Journey

Opportunity for distraction

Escape from day-to-day life

Access to positive role models

New practical skills

New positive friendships

Confidence to complete challenges

Increased respect for adults

Short term

Inter-mediate

More aspiration to try new things

Long-term

Other stakeholders that benefit:

Local authority

Local authority

N/A

Reduced neighbourhood incidents

Communities feeling safer

Increased number of young people powered by